

Protect the plan you built for them.

A parent's care is the biggest unplanned hit to your client's retirement — help them see it coming.

Nothing derails a carefully built plan like a client’s aging parent going into decline — long-term-care costs, a rushed Medicaid spend-down, drained savings, and money mistakes made in a panic. It’s Not Your Fault is the practical guide that helps your clients navigate that season — and it opens the exact conversations you want to have: long-term-care planning, the Medicaid look-back, legacy, and protecting assets. Hand it to a client and you become the advisor who thinks about the whole family.

Why advisors give this book

- It opens the LTC & legacy conversation — the one clients avoid until it’s a crisis.
- It protects your plan — clients who understand care costs make fewer panic decisions with their portfolio.
- Goodwill that deepens relationships — a genuinely useful gift at a stressful moment.
- Next-generation clients. The adult children managing Mom’s care are your future book — meet them now.
- Positioning. You become the advisor who helped with more than the money.

How the program works

- 1 Order copies in bulk at the tiered pricing below.
- 2 We add a custom bookplate inside the front — “Provided to you by [Your Practice]” with your logo and contact info.
- 3 You give them to clients at reviews, seminars, and legacy conversations.

The book stays neutral. Your name is on the insert — not in the text — so it keeps the independent credibility that makes it worth giving, and keeps your compliance review simple.
